

Wheres Duke?

Wheres Duke? is the charming childrens story of a family dog who becomes lost one day. The story clearly demonstrates the importance of the role of a pet in todays family and the love that is shared between the human and animal members of a family. The main character of the story is Duke, the newest dog addition to the family who finds himself dangerously trapped away from his family one busy afternoon. His family, which includes two adult people and a brother dog, must conduct a careful search to determine his whereabouts. This dog tale details the interesting personalities of pets, such as Duke, the dog with no tail who wags his whole body when he is happy.
