The beautiful yellow lab was abandoned and in a shelter. She did not understand why nobody wanted to adopt her. Finally, a woman stopped at her cage and took her home. She named the dog Sita and trained her, through a prison service-dog training program and her own service-dog training facility, to be a hearing ear dog. This books colorful pages depict Sitas journey from the shelter, to a prison, and finally to a forever home where she is cherished as a companion and indispensable helper. Her true, heartwarming story is appropriate for young children. Teachers and librarians can use this book as an informational tool.
