

The Magic Business Carpet Ride

Not many people can claim a career as business sales executive, chef, business entrepreneur and more as shown below. Taken as a whole, this experience is valuable in relating to today's youth what entrepreneurship is like and what is needed to be successful in business. With this background Michael Baker has created a story about a brother and sister who with all their heart want to help their family survive in a hard economic time. Their love of their Dog Randolph and their mom and dad give them the fortitude to open the first Doggy restaurant in Pluckemin New Jersey. Any business venture is a grand undertaking so they work with their Magic Advisor, Eimer the Mole, who has just received his MBA (Mole Business Advisor Degree) to open Randolph's Doggy Cafe. The Children's dream does come true but their exciting adventure making it happen is a story both young and old can enjoy and learn from.
